MAYOR'S PROBE COST MOUNTS HIGH

E. W. WAGNER CO. FAILS

ANNOUNCED FROM STOCK EXCHANGE

Assignment Follows Probe Of Affairs By Committee.

LIMA BRANCH NOT INFORMED

Orders Here Closed Upon News Of Collapse.

NEW YORK—(United Press)—E. W. Wagner and Company, New York brokerage firm, has failed, it was announced on the floor of the stock exchange today.

The following statement was issued by the exchange:
"The committee of business conduct instituted an examination of affairs of E. W. Wagner and Company recently as result of which examination members of the firm were summoned before the committee on business conduct. This was followed by assignment of the firm. The causes leading up to the assignment will be fully considered by the governing committee upon presentation of matter to that body."

Clarence C. Taylor, New York, and Chester Legg, Chicago, were given the assignment. Taylor said he would make a statement of the firm's affairs later.

An involuntary petition in bankruptcy has been filed in United States district court by Peter J. Rogers, who alleges the company owed him $5,000, representing money advanced for the purchase of stock on margin.

Henry H. Kaufman, speaking for the firm, announced it was estimated company liabilities amounted to $7,500,000 and assets were placed at $5,000,000.

CHICAGO.—The Chicago office of E. W. Wagner, whose failure was announced in New York today, made this statement:

"E. W. Wagner made a formal assignment to the United Trust Company to care for its creditors. This will probably be followed by proceedings in bankruptcy."

LOSS IN LIMA NOT ESTIMATED

Failure of E. W. Wagner & Co., dealers in stocks, bonds, grain, cotton and provisions, was announced from New York early Friday afternoon.

L. S. Watson, manager of the Lima office of the company, received the following telegram simultaneously with the official news announcement:

"Owing to the announcement of our suspension by the stock exchange we will not be able to execute any further orders. A further statement will be made later. E. W. Wagner & Co., New York."

The Lima office immediately stated to close orders, and refused acceptance of future business.

OFFICES IN 60 CITIES

The company maintains offices and correspondents in 60 cities in the United States. Although no statement was included in the New York report, nor was any made by Manager Watson of the Lima office, it is believed the loss will run into millions.

The E. W. Wagner company was established in Chicago in 1887. It has done a brokerage business continuously since that year.

The Lima office is rated as one of the foremost branch offices in the middle west. Manager Watson was unable to determine the extent of loss the failure will entail here.

Late in the afternoon the local Wagner branch received the following statement:

"The firm of E. W. Wagner and company has been in business for 35 years and we hope that the liquidation of our affairs will justify the confidence that has been placed in us. Unfortunately our business was over extended and our capital base, in the judgment of the New York Stock Exchange authorities, insufficient to assure complete protection to our clients."

"The business is out of our hands, but we shall render every assistance possible to those in charge. If properly and gradually liquidated, we believe our assets will be ample to take care of our obligations."

"E. W. Wagner and Co."

2 HELD FOR MURDER

ST. LOUIS—James Egan, 24, and Luke Kennedy, 40, were arrested and charged with the murder of Joseph Cipolla and Everett E. Summers, formerly of Toledo, who were found dead along a country road near here.

First 3 Babies Will Be Given Bank Accounts

HOORAY! Another surprise! The first three babies born in Lima in 1922 will receive savings accounts of $10 each.

Arrangements already had been made to give the first two bank accounts. Then, Friday the editor of The Lima News received this letter from Edward G. Scott, nurse at St. Rita's hospital:

"I would like to give $10 to the third baby born in Lima after the first of January. I think your paper is fine and trying to do good."

Mr. Scott said he would deposit the money in the savings department of the American Bank.

The Lima News announced a few days ago that it would deposit $5 in the American bank and that bank would add a like amount for the first baby born in Lima in the New Year. Dr. John H. Blatenberg said there should be a similar present for the second baby and said he would give it. Mr. Scott's present for the third is offered because of his interest in children.

All that's necessary is for parents submit statements from their physicians as to the time babies are born. The exact time should be given along with the names of the babies and their parents. Send these to The Editor of The News as soon as possible.

Saving pass books then will be mailed to parents for the little ones.

AUXILIARY NAVAL PLAN ACCEPTED

Arms Conference Envoys Agree to America's Proposal

WASHINGTON—(By Associated Press)—The American proposal for the limitation of auxiliary naval craft to a maximum of 10,000 tons displacement was understood to have been virtually agreed upon at the morning session today of the arms conference naval committee.

All of the powers delegations accepted the American proposal except the French, who, while holding formal approval in abeyance, said such approval was expected.

The delegations of all the powers, however, were understood to have given their assent to the additional provision of the American proposal that the guns of auxiliary craft be limited to six inches.

After disposing of the American proposal to limit tonnage and armament of auxiliary vessels, the committee renewed discussion of the second Root resolution to prohibit the use of submarines against merchant vessels. A decision was not reached owing to the lack of instructions by the French delegation from their government.

Some modifications of the Root resolution were advanced and it was expected that they would be referred to the drafting committee for final revision before disposal.

AMERICANS PLEASED

Members of the American delegation expressed much satisfaction over the virtual acceptance of the plan for the limitation of auxiliary vessels' tonnage and armament. This, it was said, would work to prevent to a certain extent competition in naval construction of the naval auxiliary craft. Its importance was accentuated by the previous acceptance of the American proposals to limit the armament of capital ships to sixteen inch guns and a virtual agreement to limit their size to 35,000 tons. At the committee's afternoon session today it was planned to continue the discussion of the Root resolutions. Final action on the Root resolutions, it was believed, would go over until the French delegation received its instructions from Paris.

No plenary session of the conference is anticipated before next week, delegates saying it was hoped to complete the naval program before presenting it in plenary session in the tentative draft of the treaty.

WELLS DIVORCE CASE UP TO SUPREME COURT

COLUMBUS—Thomas H. Wells, known as the "millionaire sergeant" of Youngstown, today petitioned the Ohio supreme court to hear his divorce case, which has attracted national attention. His petition charged error in the court's appeals.

Wells was granted a divorce by the common pleas court and soon after remarried. The appeals court, however, ordered the decree of the common pleas court set aside.

MONEY FOR VETS GOES TO STATE

Ohio Making Profit on U. S. Allowances to Disabled.

$236 REALIZED AT LIMA

Facts Given Out by Welfare Director MacAyeal

COLUMBUS—(By Associated Press)—Discussing recent charges by disabled war veterans that they are not receiving proper care at Ohio state institutions because of the crowded conditions of these institutions, H. S. MacAyeal, state welfare director, today told newspaper men that Uncle Sam is doing his share to adequately take care of these veterans but that the state of Ohio is not giving the men the full benefit of the government expenditures. He pointed out that the federal government pays the state $1.50 a day for the support of each of the 500 or more veterans being cared for in state institutions, but that the actual cost to the state in most of the institutions is only about one half of that amount.

PROFIT FOR STATE

The money from the federal government, he said, is paid into the general revenue fund of the state and under the Ohio law is not available for the specific purpose of caring for the disabled veterans. This condition, it was pointed out, allows the state of Ohio to make a handsome profit out of the care of the veterans, altho the veterans are being cared for in crowded institutions.

Given the money paid the state by the government for the care of the disabled veterans direct, MacAyeal stated that he could maintain the veterans and at the same time have enough money left for the building of special and adequate quarters for them at all institutions where more than just a few are quartered.

STATE ACTION NECESSARY

Under existing conditions, the money paid by the government for the maintenance of the veterans would be directly available for their upkeep only thru appropriations by the legislature from the general fund.

Figures available today at the state welfare department, show that the state of Ohio is making a profit of $316.22 a year on each disabled war veteran undergoing treatment at Longview hospital at Cincinnati. The government pays $547.53 for the maintenance of each patient at that hospital, while the actual cost to the state is but $231.31.

Welfare department figures on other state institutions caring for veterans show:

Other state institutions caring for veterans show:
Institution	Cost per man	U. S. fee	State's profit
Athens Hosp.	$277.35	$547.50	$269.64

DR. LORENZ DEFENDED BY J. Q. ARMOUR'S DAUGHTERS

CHICAGO—Publication of an article in the Journal of the American Medical Association, that the cure of Lolita Armour, daughter of J. Ogden Armour of Chicago, by Dr. Adolph Lorenz of Vienna, "was not a cure," today brought a statement from the former Miss Armour, who is now Mrs. John J. Mitchell, Jr. In 1903 and 1904 operations were performed by Dr. John Ridlon of Chicago, and Dr. Lorenz on Mrs. Mitchell.

"I cannot say that a perfect cure has been effected, in either hip, but the hip treated by Dr. Lorenz is far better than the other one, with which he could do little because it had been 'too bandily mismanaged,'" she said. "I myself believe that if it had not been for the work done before he was called in my case, he could have effected a complete cure."

Dr. Lorenz does not claim to be a miracle man. He is simply doing the best he can. I believe he has been too much exploited by those who are handling his finances. He has been given too much publicity, which I am sure he does not want and does not appreciate. He is doing all he can under the circumstances."

U. S. MAY DEMAND FRENCH PAY

Immediate Settlement to be Proposed in Congress.

RESULT OF ARMAMENT SPLIT

Resentment Against Paris Submarine Policy Shown.

(BY LAWRENCE MARTIN)

WASHINGTON—(By United Press)—America may demand that France immediately pay her debt to this country, as a means of forcing her to abandon her big submarine fleet policy.

Amendments to the foreign debts refunding bills are being prepared. One of these to be presented to the senate will direct that a demand be made on France for payment of interest and principal of the debt. This debt amounts to between $2,000,000,000 and $3,000,000,000.

France, of course, could not pay it off if the United States demanded it.

CHANGE OF OPINION

The idea back of the proposed amendment is that its adoption would serve notice on France that American public and official opinion hitherto extremely friendly to France had undergone a chilling because of the French attitude.

Other amendments to the bill, similar in import, have begun to take form at the capitol. They all carry the idea that if France has money to spend on a huge navy and army, she ought to have some to pay off her war debts.

HOSTILITY INTENSIFIED

Along with the new kindred resentment towards the French, the developments of recent days in the arms conference have intensified the hostility, always strong in congress, against any sort of American coalition, entente or alliance with foreign nations. There is no question that the partial destruction of the naval holiday program and the lifting of the lid on submarine and aircraft competition has strengthened the opposition to the four-power Pacific treaty.

It has also strengthened the H-b group of "big navy" men in both houses. They will be heard from in the debate which promises to break out soon after the reassembling of congress on January 3. They will demand the United States outbuild the world on submarines, aircraft and cruisers.

WOOLEN MILL CONTRACT TO BE AWARDED SATURDAY

J. Norman Claypoole, one of the owners of Lima's newly acquired $200,000 woollen mill industry, was in Butler, Pa., Friday going over estimates and specifications for erection of the south side plant. He is expected to return to Lima sometime Saturday, at which time the contract will be awarded, it was stated Friday.

Bids for the building contract were received a few weeks ago. Plans and specifications from a number of contractors were received by Claypoole.

Workmen, steam shovels and equipment will be on the factory site within 48 hours after the contract is awarded, Claypoole has announced.

Young Woman Tells How She Will Run Ohio Town in 1922

DR. MAY A. KAUKONEN is the "children's mayor" of Fairport, Ohio, a town of 7000, which has more children than any other town of its size in the United States.

She is 35 years old, probably the youngest mayor in the United States, was elected on the People's ticket on a dry platform and steps into the mayor's job on January first. Her main interest is in children.

As to her plans—well, let her tell you about them.

BY DR. AMY A. KAUKONEN

Mayor-Elect of Fairport, O.

Every mayor in every city, town and hamlet in the United States should have as a main object the safeguarding of the morals of the young people.

That's my job! Fairport has been over-run with boot-leg whisky. It is smuggled in by boat, by auto and I guess by every other way.

There is too much leniency in dealing with bootleggers. I'll prosecute them to the limit. If they can't pay their fines, they won't live off the town in jail. I'll put 'em to work on the city paving.

I can test liquor myself, if necessary. I'm a doctor, you know. Pool rooms are bad places, generally. I intend to license them all and every one that violates the liquor law will have its license revoked.

Movies? I think they're fine. Good education in many of the pictures. Now and then they present one with a suggestive title and put out a sign, "Women Only," or "Men Only." Folks fall for that and then get stung.

Short skirts are fine! I wear 'em myself. They are much better, from a health standpoint, than the long trains of olden days.

Rouge doesn't hurt either. If nature hasn't been especially kind, and a girl is clever at application, let her rouge up a bit.

Women smoking? Well, I never could get used to it. And I don't believe the average man likes to see a woman smoke. But it's their right to puff away if they so desire.

LEVIATHAN MAY RESUME QUEENSHIP OF THE SEAS

NEW YORK—America's greatest prize of the war, the giant steamship Leviathan, which for more than two years has been tied up at the Hoboken pier, may soon resume her queenship of the seas. Bids for the reconstruction of the great liner were to be opened at the office of William F. Gibbs, construction engineer, here today, in the presence of Chairman Lasker of the United States Shipping board.

It was expected five to eight ship repair firms would submit proposals for work which might entail expenditure of more than $15,000,000. Three classes of bids were asked, first for machine, second for steward's supplies, including cooking utensils and equipment and third for general restoration of the interior for which would make the Leviathan one of the finest liners afloat.

DEBS INVITED

COLUMBUS—(Columbus Socialists) today sent I. R. E. Debs, Socialist leader who was pardoned from the Atlanta penitentiary by President Harding, an invitation to speak here and congratulate him on his conduct during his imprisonment. The release of the Socialist leader will be celebrated here with a meeting January 12.

MANY ARE BURNED IN OIL FLAMES

Crude Petroleum Plays Great Pranks in Texas

WELL AFIRE, THEN EXPLODES

Casings and Rocks Hurled Many Feet in Air.

GRANGE, Tex.—(By United Press)—The new Grange oil field became an area of roaring, screeching turmoil with oil and gas spouting skyward today, when Humble Company Cresson's Number 3, broke loose again and spattered the country in a half mile radius with crude petroleum.

Simultaneously wells in the field that had been "dry" for some time, came to life and spouted. Gulf Production's "Hagermoore Number 2" blew in as a monster gasser, tearing its derrick to splinters and shooting its drill stem 200 feet into the air.

The phenomenon averted even the "wildest" wildcaters. Machinery parts of rigs and mud and rock from the bowels of the earth were hurled skyward as the outflow "Cresson Number 3" again began spouting, at the rate of 30,000 barrels daily.

HEARD FOR MILES

"The wonder well of the world"—as the Humble gasser has been christened by oil men—was spouting from 20,000 to 25,000 barrels daily thru an eight-inch choke before it went wild today.

Its roar was plainly heard for four miles. With its confusion was mingled the howl of the big Gulf Production gasser that sent a creamy blue-white geyser of gas, mineral elements and rocks, to the air, that was visible for seven miles.

The Humble Company Hagermoore Number 2, which had become a dry gasser, became active and spouted oil. From the earth below came strange rumblings and the surface fairly shook.

WELLS TAKES FIRE

Other wells increased output, owners reported. Hagermoore Number 2 well caught fire from friction. It was belatedly extinguished by the field for miles around. Terror swept the crowd estimated at 1,000 and several men were burned as they scurried to safety.

And then another miracle happened. The well's bowl and column of flame died down and it stopped flowing. Fire that threatened the entire field went out of its own accord.

An instant, it seemed, after the well stopped burning, the gas erupted again, tearing away a hole at its head that would bury a two story house. With the gas upward went great rocks, sand and well casings.

DIVORCE RECORD SET

PHILADELPHIA—Divorces granted here this year totaled 2,239, the highest number ever recorded, but the number of new suits begun was only 2,332, the lowest since 1918.

$495 IS FEE OF STENOGRAPHER

Investigators May Present Bill For Services.

DIFFICULT TO GET FIGURES

Courts Costs Still to be Summed Up. Will Add.

That Lima's taxpayers will pay roundly for the investigation of Chief of Police O. J. Roush, instituted by Mayor Burkhardt, and will continue to pay long after that official has passed in a public life, was learned Friday when an estimated expense of the affair was compiled.

Figures showing the costs are difficult to obtain, but two items alone show the investigation to date has cost Lima citizens nearly $500 in actual cash. This amount has been paid out for stenographer's fees, and the end is not yet.

CLAIM OF $1,200 DENIED

It is rumored that the investigators may suggest to council or to the new commission that $1,200 is a fair and reasonable amount for the time devoted to probing Roush's conduct.

That a bill in the amount named has already been placed in Mayor Burkhardt's hands for presentation to council Friday night, was denied by that official.

T. R. Hamilton, member of the board, also said no such bill had been sent in. He said he had been too busy with other matters to pay any attention to it.

L. M. Ludwig, chairman of the probers, declared he will not accept a cent for his services. Hamilton and F. C. Poremnitze, the other members, have not so expressed themselves.

While no actual bill for $1,200 has been handed in, so far as can be learned, it is stated that the amount has been suggested to council as fair remuneration.

Council, under the law, has authority to fix the pay of the board. At least three of the city fathers have openly expressed themselves as opposed to paying one cent to the probers.

Court costs, none of which have been paid, are piling higher and higher, records of common pleas and appeals court show.

TAXPAYERS FOOT BILL

Three actions have been threshed out in common pleas court in the past month. Mayor Burkhardt has lost in all three. He is not liable for the costs. The taxpayers are, however.

An accurate statement of the cost to the public of the three actions could not be obtained Friday. The usual fee for filing and service amounts to from $15 to $20 in each case. Other costs attendant upon the hearing will double the amount it is stated. In all, the city already owes the county not less than $100 for the actions. The appeal filed by the city Thursday will add at least $15 to the bill.

Walter Scott, stenographer who records the testimony before the board, drew $495 for his services, records of Egan O. Sellers, city auditor, show.

MAY ADD $200

It is understood the amount is not all that is due. Additional testimony taken recently, may cost the city another $200. The money was voted Scott out of the special fund voted Mayor Burkhardt to investigate liquor violations.

Members of council may question his right to draw on the fund, to pay, stenographer's fees.

More than 60 witnesses are said to have testified before the board, from first to last. Some of them were before the board a half dozen times, it is asserted.

It is a question as to whether or not witnesses can collect fees. Some of them are said to be planning to do so. It is probable that the witnesses can collect, an attorney stated Friday, if the city has funds to pay.

POPULATION OF FRANCE IS SHOWN ON DECLINE

PARIS—The official figures of the general census of 1921, gives population of France, including Alsace Lorraine, as 39,472,729. The population in 1911 was 39,604,923 including 1,122,696 foreigners.

FOXES DEFENDED

LANCASTER, O.—Six foxes lived today as the result of armed opposition to the part of farmers in this vicinity to a fox hunt held yesterday. Nine foxes were released by the hunters. Three were run down by hunters to death. The other six escaped when farmers on whose land they ran, drove the hunters off with shot guns.

NEW YEAR--NEW FICTION--NEW FEATURES--IN THE NEWS

The advent of 1922 will bring many good things for the big Lima News family. Three of these are to start next Tuesday—a new novel, latest fiction—a special woman's feature and a bedtime story for the kiddies which parents will enjoy reading to them. This gives readers the best assortment ever offered in Lima. Good winter reading along with your favorite newspaper.

"THE SNOWSHOE TRAIL," a thrilling story of the Canadian wilds will be the first offering under our new fiction plan. It runs 12 days and then another begins. "POLLY AND PAUL AND PARIS" is the absorbing love story which will interest women. "ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS" will be the high-class offering for the little ones. Read all.

CITY NOTES TIED UP BY COURT

Injunction is Granted Against Cleveland

STOPS USE OF $700,000

Employees Retiring Monday May Not Get Pay.

CLEVELAND — (By Associated Press).—A temporary injunction restraining the city from collecting any money thru the issue or sale of certificates of indebtedness amounting to $700,000 and tying up the city's efforts to meet the last half of its December payroll was granted today by Common Pleas Judge Bernon on a petition filed yesterday by Frank A. Bicknell, a taxpayer.

Judge Bernon held the city council acted illegally in authorizing the issue of the $700,000 worth of notes. The hope of the city employees who will leave its employ Monday that they may be paid before March for their last two weeks' work came in a suggestion from County Auditor Zangerle to City Finance Director Metcalf, who admitted the county owed the city $92,000 for board of county prisoners and tuberculosis patients at Warrensville. Zangerle told Metcalf he would ask the county commissioners at a special meeting of their regular meeting tomorrow morning to appropriate the $92,000 and if the commissioners approve the appropriation he would pay the city the money at once.

NEW CITY MANAGER WILL ARRIVE MONDAY TO TAKE UP HIS WORK

Things will look different in the old council chamber in the City building Monday night when, instead of the old council members sitting at their desks, there will be the new city commission and City Manager Clarence A. Bingham.

The new administration will become an official body Monday night. Word was received Friday that Bingham will arrive in Lima sometime Monday, ready for duty. Members of the commission will be sworn in Monday evening and the desks cleared for action Tuesday morning.

Manager Bingham will use the office now occupied by Mayor Burkhardt. Members of the commission would not state Friday what action may be taken by the commission, Tuesday in making appointments to minor city offices. It is believed action will not be had until after Bingham in on the job and is conferred with regarding the status of present incumbents.

The new administration will swing into activity early Tuesday morning and Lima for the first time in its history will be without a mayor and council as the acting heads of the municipality.

MERCHANTS TO OBSERVE MONDAY AS NEW YEAR; DIRECTORS ARE CHOSEN

Monday, New Year's, will be observed by members of the Lima Merchants' association as a full holiday, according to announcement made by J. E. Morton, secretary, Friday.

At a meeting of the Retail Credit Men's association, held in the Naval hotel Thursday evening, the week of January 9 to 14 was decided upon as Retail Credit Men's Week.

Charles Henry Mackintosh, president of the Associated Advertising clubs of the world, will deliver the address at a joint meeting of the Lima Merchants' association and the Lima Ad club, to be held Thursday evening, January 5.

Seven new directors were elected at the Credit Men's meeting Thursday night. They are: Arthur Feltz, H. A. Tilton, D. W. Thompson, Jack Well, Lulu Wale, Alice Steinbaugh and Margaret Bashore. The new directors will meet Wednesday to organize and name their president, vice-president and secretary-treasurer.

BANKERS AGREE TO TAKE KIWANIS RELIEF PAPER

At a meeting of representatives of all banks in Lima, the special relief committee of the Kiwanis club and officers of the chamber of commerce Friday morning, the bankers agreed to advance sufficient funds to meet the present needs of the Social Service bureau in caring for the needy of the city.

The Kiwanis notes for $5,000 were to have been signed by Trustee J. W. Hoffman Friday afternoon and deposited in the banks. Every bank in Lima has agreed to take a portion of the note, underwritten thru the agency of the Kiwanis club, pending first payments on the 1922 Community Chest fund.

The need for immediate funds has increased since Christmas, according to the secretary of the Social Service bureau.

BOULEVARD LIGHT POST BROKEN BY MOTOR CAR

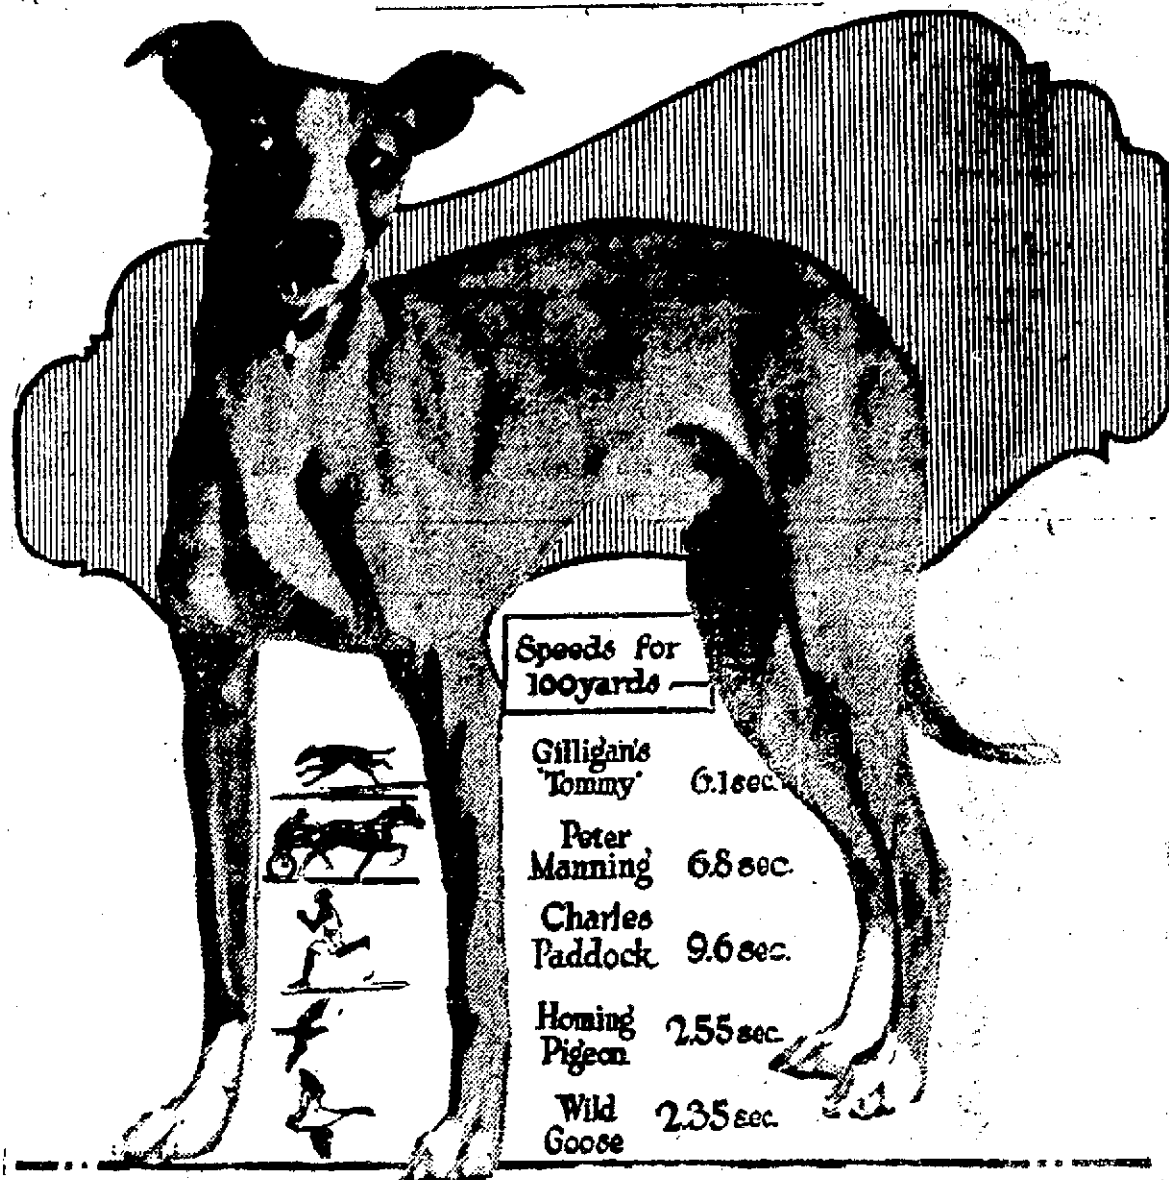

Another boulevard light post, the "eleventh" to be put out of commission since the new extension was provided, was bowled over Friday noon, when O. D. Fisher, realtor, 128 N. Charles-st., crashed into it with his car on S. Main-st., between Circular and Burka-sts.

Fisher was driving south, he told the police and turned out to pass round a street car. An automobile just ahead of him stopped. He applied the brakes and skidded.

His car climbed the curb, broke a light post squarely in two and crashed against a tree. Fisher was uninjured, but his car was damaged. The posts cost the city about $75 each.

F. W. SNYDER GOES ON TRIAL
Trial of F. W. Snyder, 29, of 128 1-2 E. Spring-st., was begun Friday afternoon before Judge Emmett J. Jackson in criminal court. Snyder is the first of a number of Lima householders to be tried who are alleged to have stolen current from the Ohio Electric company. Snyder denies the charge.

Woman Signs Away Dower in Harvester King's Millions.

CHICAGO — Edith Rockefeller McCormick and her divorced husband reached a property settlement here today.

Mrs. McCormick, John D. Rockefeller's daughter, and Harold F. McCormick, multi-millionaire, head of the International Harvester Company, made public the division of their wealth. Mrs. McCormick divorced her husband on grounds of desertion two days ago.

According to announcement by Attorney Charles Cutting, Mrs. McCormick received the McCormick town house on Lake Shore Drive and also the vast estate at Lake Forest.

In return Mrs. McCormick signed away her dower rights in the McCormick millions invested in the International Harvester Company and other business.

Social leaders interpreted the settlement as meaning that Mrs. McCormick would continue to live in Chicago as society director.

McCormick, who now lives in the Lake Forest home, is expected to make his Chicago residence with his mother, Mrs. Cyrus McCormick, Sr. In relinquishing both Chicago homes, friends believe McCormick will spend much of his time in the east or Europe.

HIGH COURT HEARS MAYOR'S APPEAL IN O. J. ROUSH CASE

Hearing of the appeal taken by Mayor F. Burkhardt from the decision of common pleas court in the Roush case opened in appeal court at 2 p. m. Friday.

Mayor Burkhardt and Solicitor H. E. Garling were in court representing the city. Chief O. L. Roush was also present, seated between his attorneys, Melvin C. Light and William H. Leets.

Mayor Burkhardt sought to represent that Judge Becker, as common pleas judge has no authority to stop a hearing of the civil service commission, also a judicial body.

Roush's counsel declare that this point was thrashed out in a previous hearing.

BOSTON—(Special)—Meet GILLIGAN'S TOMMY, the world's fastest thing on four legs.

Tommy is a whippet—the champion whippet. Unofficially he has run 200 yards in 12 seconds. But his record is 203 yards in 12 1-5 seconds, achieved recently at Westbury, L. I.

In making his new record, Tommy scurried over the cinder path faster than any other living creature in all the world has ever run.

He ran almost twice as fast as Charlie Paddock, holder of the world's record for the 100-yard dash could have made the distance.

Even Man of War, the fastest race horse that ever trod the turf, could not have overtaken Tommy.

Tommy weighs but 17 1-2 pounds. His muscles, however, are long, sleek and hard. In proportion to his weight they are tremendous and hurl his little body thru the air like a shot.

Tommy, in common with all whippets, originated from cross between an Italian greyhound and an Irish terrier. From the greyhound, of course, he gets his long legs and his speed. And from his Irish ancestor he gets his meanness.

Tommy is owned by James Gilligan of Lawrence, who values him at more than $2,000. No kennel for Tommy. His abiding place is in the parlor with the rest of the family.

Tommy is a vegetarian. During the week before a race, however, Gilligan feeds him just a little meat "to put pep in him."

He is hardly ever permitted to run except when he is racing.

Gilligan has bred whippets for 30 years.

BURGLAR BALKED AT JOS. STILSON HOME

Quick action of Mrs. Joseph Stilson, 110 S. Pine-st., in investigating an unusual sound at her home Thursday evening at 6:30, prevented a nifty burglar from getting away with considerable loot.

Mrs. Stilson heard someone enter the front door, and investigated. The intruder on the second floor heard her going up the stairway and made his way to the bath room. He escaped without getting any plunder by opening a window and letting himself to the ground via a roof.

DAVIS ACCUSED OF EVASIVE TACTICS

Pealer Issues Statement on Road Controversy.

COLUMBUS — (By Associated Press).—In the controversy now going on between Attorneys W. S. Pealer and Randolph W. Walton and Governor Davis regarding charges of misconduct on the part of certain state officials, particularly of the highway department in the building of the "three C's" highway in Knox, Holmes and Wayne cos., Attorney Pealer in a statement today proposed that the "three C's" road matter be left to the judgment of three competent engineers selected by the Good Roads Federation, The State Society of Civil Engineers and the State Automobile Association.

The statement asserts that Governor Davis is using "evasive tactics" in attributing their activities to "ulterior and political" motives, asserting the chief executive "well knows" that civic organizations are determined to curb activities, "and drive from the state those interests which get special favors."

It calls upon the governor to render assistance to the civic bodies. "Instead of countenancing his administration," if officials of past administrations have done wrong, they assert it is the governor's duty to bring them to justice.

JURY ACQUITS SCHOOL PRINCIPAL OF CHARGE OF WHIPPING A PUPIL

C. E. Hughes, principal of Whitaker school was found not guilty by a jury before Justice E. M. Botkin, Friday, after less than 20 minutes deliberation.

Hughes was arrested on a charge of whipping and maltreating Lida Lett, a student. More than 20 witnesses testified Thursday afternoon and Friday.

WOMAN UNITE TO PROTECT RIGHTS

Citizens of Two Americas Combine Their Forces.

MEET IN BALTIMORE APRIL 20

Program is Arranged for the Convention.

(BY HARRY HUNT)
WASHINGTON — (Special) — Subjects of prime importance to women will be considered at their Pan-American conference to be held in Baltimore April 20 to 28, during the annual convention of the National League of Women Voters.

The program for a series of Round Table Conferences, to be a part of the Pan-American conference, already has been worked out. It includes:

- Child Welfare.
- Education.
- Women of Industry.
- Prevention of Traffic in Women.
- Civil Status of Women.
- Political Status of Women.

The fight of women in the United States to better conditions for women and children will be extended to the whole western continent. It is hoped the conference may develop a rivalry in the case of the children and mothers that may be a powerful factor in stimulating effort.

CHILD WELFARE
Grace Abbott, chief of the Children's Bureau of the U. S. Labor Department, who will lead the discussions on child welfare, says: "It ought to be possible to work out, as a result of these meetings, what might be regarded as Pan-American standards in the several fields of child welfare. At least four specific phases of the problem of public provision for children will be considered. These are:

- 1. Maternity and infancy.
- 2. Child hygiene.
- 3. Child labor and industrial problems affecting children.
- 4. Conditions for assisting children needing special care—the dependent, neglected, defective and delinquent children."

LEGAL RIGHTS
Gibbel Walker Willebrandt, assistant U. S. attorney general, believes the conference will have a great part in shaping the future civil and economic status of women.

"We find everywhere," she says, "an awakening recognition of woman as a civil and economic factor. 'Legal' however, she is just emerging from coverture. Hardly anywhere have the laws giving her property and personal rights kept pace with the advances of public opinion on these questions. Any effort, then, to stabilize her advanced position by laws protecting it are of the greatest importance. 'The coming together of women from the two Americas in the Pan-American conference cannot but give the greatest impetus toward complete recognition of the partnership status between men and women.'"

WOMEN IN INDUSTRY
Mary Anderson, chief of the Department of Labor's Bureau of Women in Industry, declares: "It is most significant and important not only to the women in the United States that a conference is to be held where industrial standards can be discussed and understood."

"Women in the industries of all the countries represented at conference," she says, "are faced with common problems which must be solved in cooperation. Industrially the two continents are linked; the standards of one must affect the other. The health, happiness, prosperity and efficiency of both individuals and industries will be furthered by the observance of common aims and common standards."

TRAFFIC IN WOMEN
The better protection of family life and parenthood will be sought by the discussions on the prevention of traffic in women, led by Dr. Valeria H. Parker, executive secretary of the Interdepartmental Social Hygiene Board.

"American countries should lead the way in proclaiming continence to be not incompatible with health," says Dr. Parker. "The Pan-American conference is one of the media by which this may be accomplished. 'No subject will arouse more active interest. A conference of intel-

LEADING WOMEN AT CONFERENCE

Prominent figures at Pan-American women's meet. Top to bottom, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, honorary chairman, National League of Women Voters; Miss Julia Abbott, of the United States Bureau of Education; Miss Mary Anderson, chief of Bureau of Women in Industry; department of Labor; Mrs. Gibbel Walker Willebrandt, United States assistant attorney general.

Light women citizens should aid in bringing about conditions under which health and character may be better safeguarded in all the nations represented."

EDUCATION KEYNOTE

Education is the keynote to all the problems of the conference," Julia Wade Abbott of the Bureau of Education will tell the delegates. "The term 'American Education,' she says, "should be applied not alone to the systems in the 48 states of the United States, but to those prevailing in the whole of both western continents."

Women's political status will be presented by Carrie Chapman Catt, who will urge active work by her sisters in Canada and Central and South America toward obtaining an effective power in government.

PRIVATE DETECTIVES STILL GUARD STORES

The private detective force employed by the Merchants' association several weeks prior to the Christmas shopping rush is still on active duty in downtown stores, it was learned Friday.

They have been instrumental in holding to a minimum the cases of theft and shoplifting, it is asserted. Several arrests have been made and two alleged shoplifters were ordered from the city.

The force will remain on duty until after the close of 1922 shopping, it is announced.

WATSON'S CHARGE GIVEN BACKING

War Veterans Tell Senator They Saw Soldiers Executed.

"2 HANGED WITHOUT TRIAL"

Evidence Before Senate Committee is Piling Up.

WASHINGTON. — (By United Press).—Charges that the soldiers were illegally hanged, shot officers and brutally treated during the war, continued to pile up today before the senate committee investigating Senator Tom Watson's charge.

Every mail brings Watson letters and telegrams from veterans in parts of the country, who declare they have evidence to prove charges. He is turning them over to the committee and asking that men be summoned.

George D. Glazebrook, an enlisted man in the navy, aboard the U. S. Merrine at San Diego, Calif., wrote Watson today that he witnessed illegal hanging of two negro soldiers at Bazoche, France, in the spring of 1919, and asked a chance "bring the guilty ones to justice."

"I can say with a true heart a clear conscience that these two negroes were hanged without trial with the uniform of the United States army on," said Glazebrook.

"I talked to both of them and told me that they were going to hanged the next morning. Up the time I talked to them I knew they were not tried."

Charges against Major H. L. Ople of Staunton, Va., who has been accused of shooting men of his command, continue to come in.

Levi P. Bell, of Pureville, Va., former private in company I, 166th infantry, wrote him that Henry Scott, Akron, Ohio, who made original charges against Ople "a soldierly told the truth."

TREASURY CERTIFICATES FOR 1922 ARE ON SALE

New 1922 issue of treasury savings certificates for the coming year are on sale for individuals and corporations in sums not exceeding $5,000, according to advice from the United States treasury department Friday morning.

Purchases may be made direct from the treasury department until after the first, when they may be had thru the postoffice here.

Certificates are issued in denominations of $25, $100 and $1,000. They may be had for $20, $80 and $800 respectively, and at maturity may be redeemed for their full face value.

REQUISITION REFUSED JEFFERSON CITY, MO.

Jefferson City, Mo. — Governor Hyde today refused to honor a requisition for the delivery of Ohio Oliver Daugherty, under arrest in St. Louis on a charge of suspected complicity in the recent $26,000 robbery of the Hamilton county bank of Cincinnati December 10. At a hearing last night Daugherty produced witnesses and a "blotter" showing he was in jail in St. Louis county at the time of the robbery.

Don't Waste Your Time

Start right in to-day and let's get things moving. Housewives, furniture dealers, general merchandise dealers this is the time of clearance, so get busy today. Make a general survey of your household and store and you will find various articles that would benefit you by having them turned into cash and are otherwise an annoyance to you by occupying valuable floor space. There are thousands of people in this city who could just use these articles and who do not know that you would like to dispose of them at a great saving to them.

The only reliable remedy for this case is to place an advertisement in the classified section of The Lima News. The results will surprise you.

Pluralism in Loyalty Predominates, He Asserts.

PITTSBURGH.—(By Associated Press.)—Patriotism is an emotion and internationalism a form of organization, Herbert Adolphus Miller of Oberlin College told the members of the American Sociological Society here today.

"Patriotism is an enlargement of loyalty to such simple and immediate groups as the community and tribe," he said. "It now is found directed towards states and nations. The great variety of these shows that the particular expression of patriotism is always accidental and artificial rather than normal and essential."

"The aim of patriotism is to be absolute, but Laski has shown that sovereignty is pluralistic. This is proven by the separation of the church and state. There are many other possible loyalties. Patriotism in an oppressed nation is in part pathological and must be dealt with patiently. But even the Irish Erse State eventually may be loyal to the King."

100 PER CENT PATRIOT.

"The greatest desideratum at present is awareness of the pluralism. Hundred per cent patriots are the greatest obstructionists to clear vision. In my opinion ten to twenty-five per cent would be a proper proportion of patriotism to represent the true situation. That would allow for local and sentimental loyalties which are essential to character, and leave enough to include other significant groupings which are already international in scope, such as religion, culture, economic interest, and sympathy such as is indicated by our feeding German and Russian children. There is no nationality to a hungry child. There is no inconsistency in divided loyalties."

"The constitutions of the new states recognize this when they provide for the rights of national minorities. We are already on the verge of the practice of nationality tolerance similar to religious tolerance. An absolute patriot is as anomalous as an absolute sectarian. "It is the immediate job of educators to point out both the existing and potential international groupings to which we belong in order that our loyalties may be adapted to realities. The decentralization of patriotism in the British Empire shows that we may have states and nations and an international patriotism without any strain on human nature."

ECZEMA ON FACE AND NECK

In Blisters On Little Girl, Skin
Sore and Red. Cuticura Heals.

"When my little girl was four months old eczema broke out on her face and neck in small blisters. Her skin was very sore and red. Later the breaking out developed into sore eruptions. She was cross and could not sleep day or night."

"The trouble lasted about six weeks before I began using Cuticura Soap and Ointment, and after using two cakes of soap and one and a half boxes of ointment she was healed." (Signed) Mrs. Edna Pottor, Oregon, Ohio.

Daily use of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum usually prevents skin troubles.

PRESIDENT SEES BUSINESS IMPROVEMENT IN 1922

OMAHA, Neb. — Belief that the national business situation is going to improve in 1922, was expressed by President Harding in a message made public today by the Omaha Chamber of Commerce in connection with an entertainment in honor of traveling salesmen who work out of Omaha.

President Harding said it was his "earnest hope" that traveling men will continue in the coming year the splendid work for American business and national confidence which they have always conducted in the past. It has long been a conviction with me that no group of men do more to spread the spirit and sentiment of optimism than do these ambassadors of business, as I like to call them.

"I hope and firmly believe that the efforts which they and many others are putting forward, are going to bring about a vast improvement in the national business situation in the coming year."

ARISTOS FLOUR

Aristos Bread

1 quart warm potato water
2 heaping tablespoons sugar
1 heaping tablespoon lard

1 level tablespoon salt
1/4 cake compressed yeast
3 quarts Aristos Flour

PROCESS

1. Dissolve yeast, sugar and salt in water. Add lard to Aristos Flour. Make into a dough, and after greasing dough on top, put aside and let stand for five hours (which is termed proofing). Then press dough down and let stand again from one-half to one hour, according to temperature. Now fold dough into loaves without kneading, and let them stand three-fourths to one hour before baking. It will usually take one hour for this size loaves to bake—four loaves being what this amount of dough will make.

ROMANCE DREAM ENDS IN DEATH

Cherished Hope of King Peter Shattered by Murder.

NIPPED BY PRINCESS SLAYING

Planned Marriage of Son to Russian Czar's Daughter.

BELGRADE.—(By Associated Press.)—Interesting details have come to light respecting the late King Peter, Serbia's venerable ruler and the "grand old man" of Europe, who passed away in this city a short time ago.

During his last illness the King asked frequently for his son Alexander, who found it impossible to be with him because of his own serious illness in Paris. He was much attached to him as "my little Aleck." He had the fullest confidence in him and during the last years of his life left the affairs of state entirely in his hands.

He had been especially anxious that his son should marry Princess Olga, daughter of the Czar of Russia, but whatever prospect there was for the match disappeared in the murder of the beautiful princess by the Bolsheviks.

DIES IN POVERTY.
The King died a poor man. Whatever personal possessions he had were lost during the tragic retreat to Corfu in the grim days of 1915, when the German hordes overran the little Slav state. When the correspondent asked one of the late monarch's old friends if the King had left any legacies, he replied: "Yes, a wooden trunk, a bedstead, a few skins, a great character and an undying memory."

In the years preceding his ill health it was one of the King's most cherished hopes that he might visit America. He was a great admirer of the energy, industry and capacity of the people of the United States. He felt that Serbia owed a great deal to America for its championship of the rights of the smaller nations and especially for its support of Yugoslavia's claims at the Paris Peace Conference. The aged sovereign held former President Wilson in high esteem.

SIMPLE IN TASTES.
Throughout his 77 years King Peter was ultra-democratic and simple in his tastes. He disliked ceremony and had a contempt for flattery and compliments. He insisted that his meals consist of only one dish. All his servants were peasant soldiers. His home in Belgrade was plain to the point of rudeness. When well, he always attended personally to the gardens and the poultry. Like most Slavs, he was extremely superstitious. He considered the number "13" fatal and would never begin to project on Friday. When asked to explain his superstition, he pointed out that if the numerals in each of the great year of Serbia's destiny were counted up, they would total "13" in each case. The King felt sure he was going to die in 1931, because the numerals 1, 9, 2, 1, totalled "13." His prediction came true.

PROMINENT OHIOAN DIES AT COLORADO SPRINGS

TOLEDO.—Horace Young Barnes, 36, prominent in business and social circles in Toledo, died suddenly of heart disease, late yesterday, at Colorado Springs, Colorado, according to word which reached relatives here today.

As civilian aide to Major General Glenn, during the construction of Camp Sherman at Chillicothe, Mr. Barnes' services received marked consideration from both the civil and military authorities and resulted in originating and making possible the exhibition of the famous motion picture "The Making of a Nation." Mr. Barnes was named by the government as a member of a special commission sent to Russia during the war for the purpose of combating German propaganda.

To Politicians

FRIENDS: With the induction of the comin the past. Let's make an honest effort to eliminate it

To Soda Fountain Proprietors

GENTLEMEN: The "nuisance" tax goes off on commodities sold at your places at 12 tomorrow night. That should help bring the only legalized drinks back nearer normal.
Many of you already have cut; others say the tax keeps prices up. That won't go in 1922.

To Father Time

DEAR DAD: Completing the 1921st year of your existence, it is fair to assume that you have passed from the age of frivolity.
For one of your years, it's time you are cutting out wars and rumors of wars and bringing about a return of prosperity, in keeping with the newly coined word known as normalcy.
I trust that during 1922 you'll be somewhere nearer on your good behaviour than you have been since 1914

To President Harding

DEAR WARREN: Reading intently the reflection of Washington activities, in my favorite newspaper, I greatly fear that the treaty now in course of building will be disappointing to you.
It is becoming so nearly like the Versailles treaty and is creating so much controversy withal, it is easy to understand why so many of your followers are being convinced that your predecessor wasn't so far from being right after all.

burglars are concerned. This agreeable.

is of Georges McManus, sue of Drinking Up Father. And to the club which lake served us a good steak but with toast overdone the he pleased Jim much with his apple pie and cheese.
Then beckoned by Mrs. McLaughlin wife of the architect, very brave in a new Ford sedan, shiny as silk newly come from the Timmermeistermills on Van-st north. Homeward
I came, saw my door and hatch open left so by the cookmaide which so served me, that I raised voice to a pitch that caused Frank Downing to look frowningly from the sidewalk,
I know he will be telling his about it. Then to the office, to find many contributions some in money for the poor family discovered on Christmas day. And the children will fare well, but food is still much needed.

Home to dinner, where I find my wife's dining master, teaching the new walk wait, which peeved me;
she does it well, and am resolved to give myself some practice
Thru the town, and met with Frank Ranta, who read a tale from an old friend, about a windfield and a schoolmaster, which was very good.

Met with Heather Poling and he cheerful, saying there is little of plague, not many complaining or sickly, and fewer going south. So to Jimmie, my barber's, and had my hair cut and was well trimmed, because put in thought by having passed Jill Albert at the Savings building.

Passing of beer has brought to an untimely death a kindly kitten in our neighbor's home. Every evening it has been a custom of twenty years for this couple to sit down at table about nine o'clock, eat a peanut butter sandwich or two, and over a bottle of beer, discourse upon the happenings of the day, she of the feminine doings and he of business.
The kitten whose name was Billie, always joined the party and became very fond of his beer taken from the tin cap which his mistress always gave to him. Billie would munch his sandwich crumbs, drink his four—always and no more four —cups of brew and wander away to the grate fire where shortly he would snore. After prohibition, home brew supplied for a time, and Billie learning all over was satisfied, but this, too gave out and Billie slowly sickened and died. He was buried with all the honors of Katon in the back yard, victim of the Volsteadian era. Or so claim his parents.

To Citizens of Lima

MY FRIENDS: When the bells announce the birth of a new year tomorrow night there will be real cause for rejoicing. Besides indicating that we have completed another lap in our existence and are setting forth on another, all indications are that a new era of prosperity will be ushered in.

We have passed thru a strenuous year.
The trials and tribulations have been great, but we have come thru nobly. The sun is beginning to shine and we should be happy. We have shown a remarkable spirit in keeping up our morale under the trying conditions. We should now turn our faces to the future, forgetting the past, and resolve that we shall be instrumental in hastening the glad day of better times.

Your humble servant, Lima Beane, extends heartiest greetings and wishes for each and every one a happy and prosperous new year

MY DEAR ROISTERERS: Better have a care how far you go in bidding adieu to 1921 and welcoming 1922, Sunday morning. I understand our mayor will clamp on the lid
during the last few hours he's in office.
Safety first, fellers!

dered on the success of your efforts in behalf of my city during the year now drawing rapidly to a close.

confidently expected and ardently hoped for.

HEALTH TALKS

Common Sense Ways to Keep Well

VITAMINES IN DIET

Such is said these days about the importance of vitamins in the normal healthy diet. Few know what vitamins are or what they do.

Experiments have readily proved that no animal can live upon a mixture of pure protein fats and carbohydrates nor, even when the necessary salts are carefully added,
can the animal flourish.

Three active substances which must be present to allow animal growth to flourish have been called vitamines. They are known as the fat soluble vitamins that prevent scurvy, the fat soluble vitamin that favors body growth and the water soluble vitamin which has to do with appetite.

The presence of all three of these classes of vitamins is essential to bodily well being and even the symptoms of complete vit-amine starvation may not be present, many vague symptoms of malnutrition often may be due to an insufficiency of vitamins.

The advance of civilization has given us many refined foods which for the most part have lost their vitamines. Such common foods as flour, sugar, rice, macaroni, vegetable fats, lard and plain meats and fish are much deficient in vita-mines.

The good thing about vitamins,
however, is that comparatively small amounts are required to supply the requisite amount in the average diet.

All the essential vitamins are to be found in fresh milk, eggs, coarse flours, most vegetables and fruits, especially tomatoes, oranges, grapefruit, lettuce, spinach, cabbage, cauliflower and other leafy vegetables, and in peas and beans, grapes and other fruit.

THE REFORMERS

The fortress of Mammon is strong and tall
Its gates are heavy, and thick its walls
Its guards are many and great of them,
While we who batter the gates are few

The fortress of Mammon has frowning guns
And deep and wide is the moat that runs
About its edges, yet none the less
We are not awed by its mightiness.

The fortress of Mammon is ringed about
With bristling trenches and barriers
stout,
Yet ever we move to a fresh attack
And ever our forces are beaten back.

But the dead we leave are not dead
in vain,
For where their blood leaves a crimson stain
Shall stand then brothers all unafraid
To take up gladly the fight they made.

The warden of Mammon are paid with gold
And well and bravely their posts
they hold,
But the spirit of man that is clean and high Shall wholly conquer them, bye and bye

In spite of treason, in spite of loss,
Of great guns frowning the walls around,
The fortress of Mammon weaker grows
Beneath the hail of our ceaseless blows

We shall not shatter its walls today,
Our generation shall pass away,
Sons of our sons our ranks shall fill
While the fortress of Mammon stands there still

But the light we're making shall never cease
And the car of Mammon shall not know peace
Till the breach is made in the towering wall
And the fortress of Mammon at length shall fall

GIRLS DEMANDING BETTER THINGS

Education Opportunity in the Orient Asked.

COLLEGE ARE SPRINGING UP

Mrs. Murray Frame Tells of Improved Conditions.

CHICAGO.—(By Associated Press.)—A desire for women's higher education is sweeping over the Orient; the girls of India, China and Japan are asking for a better preparation for life, according to Mrs. Murray Frame, of Yenching college, Peking, who has just completed a tour of the United States in the interest of better education for women in the Orient.

Within the last few years, seven colleges for women have made their beginning in the Far East, according to Mrs. Frame. Five of them are Arts colleges and two Medical, she states.

They are located as follows: two in India, at Lucknow in the north and at Madras in the South; two in China, one in the Northern capital, Peking, the other in the old Southern capital, Hankow; one in Tokyo, the capital of Japan. The two medical schools are in Vellore, India and Peking, China.

AID TO SUPPERS.

"Last winter, when North China was in the stranglehold of that terrible famine," Mrs. Frame states, "students of Yenching (Peking) College gave Materlinck's 'The Blue Bird' in Chinese, thru which they raised $1,500 for the sufferers. Then a small troupe were excused from college and went out into the nearest famine region to investigate. They found such numbers of poor little girls, either deserted to die, or about to be sold by their desperate parents into a life of shame, that they begged the use of two Buddhist temples to serve as a haven. There they cared for over two hundred famine victims thru the long winter months. Other girls in the college securing money and clothing, and coming in relays for two weeks at a time to help in the work. Among other ways of raising money the girls gave 'Merchant of Venice' in Chinese."

"Are the girls ready for these opportunities? Every year they come in eager groups, many of them several days journey, to enter this land of their dreams. But every year many must be turned away for lack of room. A year ago 178 applicants came for admission to the Medical College at Vellore. Only 28 could be received. One hundred-fifty would-be medical workers for the suffering population of India were turned away for lack of room."

"What is happening in the schools of Japan is of more importance to mankind today than what is happening in her dock yards."

"DANDERINE"

Grows Thick, Heavy Hair

35-cent Bottle Ends all Dandruff, Stops Hair Coming Out

Ten minutes after using Danderine you can not find a single trace of dandruff or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow long, strong and luxuriant. One application of Danderine makes thin, lifeless, colorless hair look richly bright, lustrous and just twice as abundant.—Adv.

Ben Ami -- Mystery Man of the Stage

BEN AMI
The great actor seen on the American stage since Mansfield."

"He's a mystery," said one. "He's the greatest actor seen on the American stage since Mansfield."

"I can't agree to that," said a third. "It looks to me like he's copying after Schildkrout in 'Lil' Tom' and making a bunch of the copy."

The fourth? "I don't know what to say," he said. "One moment I think the only American actor to compare to him is John Barrymore and the next I think he is one of the worst players ever seen on the stage."

If one eavesdropped upon others leaving the theatre no general impression would yet be gained. There is no general impression of Ben Ami.

He is at least individual. Your eye follows him even when he is on the outer edge of the stage group. Inactive. He has a commanding personality — none will deny that.

And what of this fellow who has the hard-boiled first-nighters in heated debate?

He is now 30. He began his dramatic career 10 years ago at Odessa where he founded the first Yiddish theatre in the world devoted entirely to serious drama. The ear stopped to listen.

He helped organize a Yiddish theatre in London. He came to America six years ago. He first came to prominence here when he became the impelling spirit of the Yiddish Art theatre which held forth at the drafty old Garden theatre.

"The Idle Inn" is his first play in English. In that Ben Ami is a rough horse thief who breaks up a wedding party by stealing the bride from under the very noses of the wedding guests. The girl hates him. The entire action of the play is just about as uncertain as that — and so is Ben Ami.

SPENCERVILLE FIGHTS SUNDAY MOVIE SHOW

SPENCERVILLE—Roma McCabe, of St. Mary's, owner of a movie theatre here, was placed on trial Friday, on a charge of violation of the law in ordering the opening of the place Christmas night, Sunday.

The show was given, despite of local orders to the contrary. McCabe has declared he will appeal to higher court if the case goes against him before Mayor J. H. Sunderland.

SERVICE CALLED OFF
A watch night service, planned for the Epworth M. E. church Saturday night has been called off, the pastor announced Friday.

WHEN NERVES ARE UNSTRUNG

Gude's Pepto-Mangan
Builds Up Vigor
and Strength

There are times when men and women cannot help losing strength. They try to do too much or they lose sleep or do not eat enough food that nourishes. Blood becomes sluggish because poisons dog it. Faces grow pale and pasty looking. It is not long before nerves get unstrung.

The best way to start a change for the better is to take a course of Gude's Pepto-Mangan. It builds the blood. The weakness from a lack of red cells in the blood is overcome. Gude's Pepto-Mangan sends a fresh supply of red cells streaming thru the blood. Good blood pure, and free from poisons, starts building vigor and strength. Sleep is better, appetite keener, so that the body becomes properly nourished. Druggists have Gude's Pepto-Mangan in both liquid and tablet form. The name "Gude's Pepto-Mangan" is on the package.

YOU GET $7 CREDIT FIRST OF YEAR

This Sum Is Saved Thru New Revenue Law.

WASHINGTON*—(By United Press)—Every man, woman and child in the United States will start off the new year with a direct saving of seven dollars in federal taxes, which during the year will expand to four times that sum.

Under the new revenue act, which becomes effective January 1, $700,000,000 in taxes is lopped from the budget. But experts of the treasury department today stated that four times that figure will accrue to the taxpayers due to the peculiar operation of the economic law. Many of the changes in the revenue act will not benefit certain classes of taxpayers until 1923. But the average wage earner will effect an immediate saving in his income as well as in other taxes. Under the new act, the head of a family is exempted up to $2,500 instead of $2,000 and $400 for every dependent instead of $200.

ADAMS LOSES $25 BOND AS PAYMENT ON OLD FINE

Steve Adams, 144 W. Fourth-st., a baker, is poorer by $25 as a result of his arrest for intoxication, Tuesday.

A bond of $25 given as security for his appearance in court Friday was retained as part payment on an old fine. The intoxication charge was dismissed by Judge Jackson, for lack of prosecution.

$29 STOLEN FROM HOME OF F. M. McELDERRY

An open basement window afforded a prowler easy access to the home of F. M. McEldey, 677 W. Elm-st. Thursday. McEldey reported to police the man entered his home and secured $29 hidden behind a clock in the dining room. Members of the family, who were asleep, were not disturbed.

MRS. TAYLOR HAD GIVEN UP ALL HOPE

Many Of Her Neighbors Had Been Benefited.

"I don't know of a home in our neighborhood where some member of the family hasn't been helped by Tanlac, and ours is really a Tanlac neighborhood," said Mrs. Margaret Taylor, 67 South Fourteenth-st., Kenmore, Ohio.

"I began to take Tanlac myself because I heard so many people I knew say that it was a wonderful medicine and it has certainly lived up to its reputation in my case, for I am just like a different person now."

"I suffered for years from stomach trouble and had almost given up hope of ever finding anything to give me relief. Tanlac has done, however, what I thought was impossible, and I am as well and strong now as I ever was in my life."

Tanlac is sold in Lima by Hunter's Drug Store and by leading druggists everywhere. —Adv.

BOY, 12 YEARS OF AGE, HANGS SELF

Barberton Lad Ends Life Because of Parental Rebuke

BODY IS FOUND BY MOTHER

News in Brief Gathered From Ohio Cities.

BARBERTON, O. — (By Associated Press)—Jerry Rosati, 12, an only child, hanged himself from the beams of the cellar of his home here yesterday afternoon when his mother reproved him for over-indulgence in sweetmeats and nuts.

Coroner Kent returned a verdict of suicide. Barberton police had reported the death accidental.

The boy's mother found the body when she went into the cellar to investigate his quietness. An hour before he had been cracking nuts which she had feared would make him ill.

The police reported that he tried to make a swing and became entangled in the clothes line.

BRITISH AND FRENCH FINANCIERS IN SESSION

PARIS—The meeting of British and French financiers and business men at the French foreign office this afternoon to grapple with the European economic situation is regarded in French circles as one of the most important experiments since the first efforts to bring Europe back to a peace basis.

It is generally believed that if the conference organizes an international consortium of bankers, merchants and manufacturers, it will have a marked influence on the future of Europe.

Even in French political circles, where all efforts of British business men to intervene in European problems have been regarded with suspicion, the impression is gaining that after all business heads may be able to get ahead faster than diplomats.

PROPRIETORS OF RESORTS FOR THE TIRED BUSINESS MEN INDICTED BY JURY

CHICAGO—Grand jury indictments of three women owners of massage parlors based on evidence of what State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe terms "gross and increasing immorality," were announced today as the beginning of a determined campaign to rid Chicago of scores of such establishments.

State's Attorney Crowe announced that the investigation had revealed that the "hottest and most pretentious of these massage parlors which featured 'female attentions,' are said by investigators of the state's attorney's office to be in the loop district.

At some of the places it was found that the "tired business men" made engagements with the girls attendant for after business hours, and no specific instances of vice was discovered by the investigations of the places indicted.

GILMORES' PLIGHT IS PITIFUL

Three Members of Salem-Tp Family in Lima Hospital.

Age, suffering from the ravages of a winter ill, lies on its death bed at City hospital, the ward of the public. Middle age, also a victim of the stress of the times, is in the company of Age. Youth has just arisen from one of the hospital beds, having successfully overcome the threats with which age rears its ugly head.

Three generations of the Gilmore family, in Salem-Tp, Augaize-co, were stricken with influenza. The aged Mrs. August Gilmore who has seen three score and fifteen summers, was the first. Her daughter, Mrs. Daisy Seewer was next, and finally Mrs. Seewer's son Truman became ill. August Gilmore died of the disease December 20.

So ill were the members of the Gilmore family that one of them was unable to attend the last rites for the aged father. And while he was being laid away, the Gilmores, with but three little children all under 10 years of age to attend them, lay ill at their home, trusting to fate.

Neighbors feared to approach the home because of the disease.

Dr. R. D. Dougherty of Spencerville visited the Gilmore home. He found the little children attempting to care for three seriously ill adults. He found no fire in the house for either heating or cooking. The condition of the family was deplorable.

With the sanction of the trustees of Salem-Tp, the sick were removed to the Lima City hospital.

Friday it was reported from the hospital that the young man, Truman Seewer, had recovered sufficiently to leave the institution. Mrs. Seewer's mother, is still confined to her bed.

The aged woman whose inability to withstand the ravages of the disease is so marked that hope for her life is lacking, is expected to die, before the new year, comes into being.

PEOPLE WARNED OF LAW LAXITY

Dangers Pointed Out at Nebraska Bar Convention.

CIVILIZATION UNDERMINED

Immigration Problems Linked With The Question.

OMAHA, Neb.— (By Associated Press.)—Civilization cannot exist without law and law is useless unless actively effective. Judge Kimbrough Stone, of Kansas City, told the Nebraska State Bar Association here today.

"The great agency which makes law effective in a republic is respect for the law by everyone. This respect can be compelled from such as do not willingly accord it. There now exists, in this country, the need to enforce respect for the law."

INCIDENTS CITED.

Laws are enacted to control existing or apprehended conditions. Unless they are enforced they control nothing. An unenforced law is not only a vain thing, it is a dangerous thing.

There are recent happenings evincing a disrespect for law and defiance of it which urge watchfulness and action. Your sister state of Kansas enacted the so-called Industrial Court Law. I am not now considering the policy of that law. It may be very good or very bad. The fact remains, that the legislature of that state enacted it and the highest court of that state sustained it.

As such, it should be obeyed in all within that state. Alexander Howat and his followers, among the miners of Kansas, do not find this law to their liking. It is entirely within their legal rights to test its validity in the courts. But they are openly advocating, and practicing, disregard and defiance of it. This action is a direct challenge to the will and power of the State of Kansas to enforce its laws.

DEFIANCE OF DRY ACT.

"An instance of semi-organized defiance of law occurred a few months ago in Wisconsin, where a settlement, mostly foreign born, forcibly resisted the enforcement of the National prohibition law. Several men were shot before the situation quieted."

"All thoughtful Americans should concern themselves with the problems of immigration. There are classes of immigrants we can well do without. They confound license with liberty; they are not willing to accept our institutions; they often seek to substitute their own ideas and ideals of government, by fomenting discontent and advocating defiance of the resistance to existing law. They herd to themselves with no desire to mingle with the American mass. They come foreign and remain foreign. Wherever you find a sore spot there they are sure to be. In Kansas and Wisconsin, were some of this character of immigrants."

MINERS TO ACCEPT NEW PLAN

Will Not Oppose Separate Agreement Proposal.

COLUMBUS—(By United Press.)—Union miners will accept coal operators' proposal that a new wage scale and working agreement contracts be made according to districts instead of by joint agreement through members of the central competitive field, it was indicated at Ohio miners' union headquarters here today.

G. W. Savage, state miners' secretary, declared that separate district agreements were made in 1906 and 1910, and this statement was interpreted by operators to mean that the proposed meeting between operators and miners in the central competitive field at Pittsburgh January 6, would be postponed or called off.

Geographic Puzzles

and that the miners were willing to meet according to districts.

Other operators associations in the central competitive field, are expected to follow the lead taken by southern Ohio operators. Pittsburgh district operators have already notified John L. Lewis, head of the United Mine Workers, that they would deal with their district union only.

Southern Ohio operators propose to abolish the "check-off" system and slash wages 20 per cent. An announcement regarding wage cuts is expected shortly from W. D. McKinney, secretary of the Southern Ohio Coal Exchange.

Lastern Ohio coal operators were to meet in Cleveland today and belief was expressed here that they would follow in the steps of the southern Ohio operators.

"Wage scales could be settled by districts," said Savage, "We did this back in 1906 and again in 1910."

Write Gold Medal Flour on your grocery list

MOST people intend to get the best, but when the time comes to buy one has so many things to think of that it is very natural to forget.

The quality of Gold Medal Flour is so easy to distinguish that more people remember it than any other kind.

They like its uniform whiteness, purity and strength. They know that its superior mixing qualities make it go farther than ordinary flours. They realize that as Gold Medal Flour is made from spring wheat it is more nourishing, and that the elements it contains are better bone and muscle builders.

For a limited time we are giving away a Gold Medal Cook Book with each purchase of Gold Medal Flour.

Just ask your grocer to give you a ticket for the Gold Medal Cook Book. This ticket sent to our mills at Minneapolis will bring a copy by return mail. So don't forget to write Gold Medal Flour on your grocery list today.

WORLD'S FLYING RECORD BROKEN

Previous 24-Hour Continuous Trip is Surpassed.

MINEOLA, N. Y. — (By Associated Press) — The Larsen monoplane piloted by Edward Stinson, which this morning broke the world's continuous flying record of 24 hours, 19 minutes and 7 seconds, descended shortly after 11:15 a. m. after having been in the air 26 hours, 19 minutes and 35 seconds.

The official times were: Start yesterday morning at 8:58:55, finish this morning at 11:17:50. Stinson, stationed at Kelly Field, Texas, during the war as an air instructor because of his delicate health, probably trained more American flyers than any other instructor.

Stinson was forced to descend because of a faulty oil connection, with which he and his mechanic, Lloyd Bertaud, had battled since 3 o'clock this morning. They still had gas enough to have flown until sundown.

The pump used to inject oil into the lubricating system from the auxiliary oil tank, went out of commission at 3 o'clock. The fliers punctured the tank, set up a temporary tube and began feeding the lubricating system by hand, taking turns at the controls of the plane and at the oil tank.

Both men were almost blinded by oil when they descended. In addition they were suffering intensely from the bitter cold, for altho the plane was equipped with a cabin, Stinson had not left his seat in the open cockpit since four p. m. yesterday and his mechanic found little time to seek shelter.

TICKET TO DENMARK
COPENHAGEN. — The minister of justice has introduced in the Landsting a marriage bill, one of whose clauses provides that if husband and wife have lived apart for 18 months, their marriage can be dissolved by royal consent.

SOFT PEDAL ON WEATHER

Now that New Year resolutions are in order, the privilege of framing his own must be accorded the weatherman. What he will decide to do isn't disclosed—probably doesn't know himself.

With only one more day of 1921 to go, the old year clings to its determination to go down into history with a remarkable weather record.

Increasing cloudiness and warmer tonight is the forecast. For Saturday, unsettled conditions, with probably light rain in north portion. Warmer in south portion Saturday. Unless the forecaster changes his mind on the morrow, the year 1922 will be inaugurated in a period of mild weather conditions.

OHIO WESLEYAN GLEE CLUB HERE FOR CONCERT

The Ohio Wesleyan Glee club, under the direction of Prof. G. E. McLean, will entertain Lima music lovers in Trinity M. E. church Friday evening. An extensive program has been arranged. The coming of the collegians is under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

Miss Edith Burford accompanies the club as a reader and entertainer. The club will present in addition to chorus singing, the Varsity Quartet, a double quartet of men who toured the Panama Canal zone last summer; piano and vocal solos and humorous selections.

A number of social functions were arranged for entertaining the musicians.

CHARGES WIFE LEFT HIM AFTER 15 DAYS MARRIED

A divorce petition filed in common pleas court late Thursday by Jack Welsh, laborer, Forest-ave, alleges his wife, Mrs. Celestia Welch, deserted him after 15 days of wedded life.

The couple were married in Dayton in 1916. Mrs. Welch cannot be located, the petition states.

AUSTIN AND HUGHES TO SUCCEED HOVER, BUTLER ON CITY SCHOOL BOARD

Final meeting of the board of education for 1921 was held Thursday night.

Two members of the board, Guy C. Butler and Dr. W. E. Hover, retire with the meeting. A reorganization meeting will be held Monday or Tuesday evening at which time the two incoming members, Homer Hughes and Ralph Austin will be installed.

Classes in the public and high schools will be resumed Tuesday. Superintendent of Schools J. E. Collins announced Friday.

"There is nothing to be done about the heating at the Garfield school except to improve the ventilation system," Collins said. "I have always found the heating system there to be adequate. However, if the fans used in ventilating the building are repaired and the teachers make proper use of the heating system, the classes will continue, otherwise we will break them up and distribute the pupils among other schools."

LIMA BOY CONFESSES TO PART IN KENTON THEFT

Harry Groves, 19, confessed late Friday that he and Owen and Lester

Murphy, robbed an Erie box car at Kenton more than a month ago. Aluminum ware was taken from the car by the trio. Groves said, under the impression the paper cartons contained cigarettes.

The mistake was not discovered, Groves told Kenton police and Erie officers, until they had the goods in Murphy's store at Kenton.

When the officers searched the store Thursday the aluminum was recovered.

Forest King, prosecutor of Hardin-co, Detective Reed of the Erie railroad and Kenton police were in Lima Thursday afternoon to question the trio held here.

The Murphys will be held at Kenton, as their connection with Lima robberies has not been clearly established.

my home," T. P. Williamson, 40, told W. E. Myers, manager of the United Fuel company, 209 S. Central-ave, Myers told police.

He tendered a check for $47.50 in payment, and received $24 in change. The teamster who hauled the coal to the address given on S. Pine-st, found there was no house on the lot.

Friday the bank returned the check to the coal company. It was marked "no account."

Police are seeking the man who gave the check. There is no T. P. Williamson in Lima, they assert.

MAN INJURED WHEN TEAM OF HORSES MAKE MAD DASH

C. B. Vorhees, 64, 154 S. Pine-st suffered internal injuries and a fractured ankle early Thursday evening when a team of horses he was driving ran away, throwing him against a telephone pole and into the wagon.

The horses became frightened when at the corner of Elm and Union-sts, causing them to make a mad dash. Vorhees was removed to the City hospital.

SOCIAL EVENTS FOR GLEE CLUB

MEMBERS of the Ohio Wesleyan Glee club were entertained at luncheon at the Lima club Friday noon. The club will appear in concert at Trinity M. E. church Friday evening under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. Throughout the luncheon delightful music was furnished by a four piece orchestra.

Thursday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Roby and daughters, Misses Mary Kathryn, Martha and Annette entertained at their home honoring the members of the glee club. The home was attractively decorated with appointments of the season. Mr. and Mrs. Roby and daughters are alumni of Ohio Wesleyan.

Friday evening an alumni banquet will be given at the Y. M. C. A. Dr. John W. Hoffman, president of the university, will be present to assist in the organization of an Ohio Wesleyan alumni for Allen-co. Professor Herman Shipp, alumni secretary, will also be present.

Members of the glee club include Messrs. Newell Anson, Stewart Cupps, Forest Rose, Edgar Runkle, Chester Warner, Kenneth Leary, Robert Maskey, William Mead, Harry Tuman, Kenneth Browning, Robert Coleman, David Craig, Donald Spitzer, Clair Underwood, Neal Atz, W. P. Maddox, Z. Y. Neche, Y. E. Seibert, C. A. Sponsler, Arthur Wallace, Prof. Guy F. McLean, leader, and Miss Edith Burford as reader.

Most attractive was the dinner dance given Thursday evening at the Lima club by the members of the Epsilon fraternity. The tables, which were arranged in the form of a hollow square, were handsomely decorated with appointments of the season. A large Christmas tree with candelabras burning on either side was placed in the center of the square. Small sprays of holly adorned the table and a pleasing note was added by tall green candles tied with maroon tulle. Other appointments carried out the predominating color scheme of maroon and green.

John Davison, president of the organization, gave a short talk. Other informal talks were given by Emerson Simpson, vice-president, Harry Wright, founder of the Lima chapter; Miss Catherine Weadock, sponsor; Louis Edwards and Frank Holmes.

Place cards bore the names of Misses Margaret Cooper, Anna Bradley, Helen Sidener, Josephine Purtscher, Jeanette Hurst, of Detroit; Helen Hughes, Pauline Warner, Helen Johnson, Mary Roberts, Marion Cable, Elizabeth Hay, Garnet Howell, Catharine Galvin, Marjorie and Elizabeth Green, Katherine Moulton, Jane Bentley, Dorothy Kahle, Miriam Kaufman, Janet White, Messrs. Harry Wright, Robert Breckenridge, John Davison, Frank Holmes, Donald Cameron, Richard Gensel, Fred Schoonover, Edward Weadock, Loren Stull, Walton Wyre, Arthur Wheatley, Joseph Kirk, Louis Edwards, William Kirk, Emerson Simpson, Burrelle McLaughlin, Carl Plummer, Sidney Hoagland, of Wheeling, W. Va.; Edmund Taylor, Elsworth Ross and Henry Wenner.

Dancing in the ball room, which was also attractively decorated, followed. A soft glow was given by the shaded lights. On either side of the room was a large "E" in the fraternity colors, maroon and gold. Showers of confetti and vases of serpentine were distributed and balloons were given as favors.

Miss Lorene Burkhardt was complimented Thursday evening when Wilbur Higby welcomed a group of guests at a most enjoyable gathering in celebration of the birthday anniversary of Miss Burkhardt's dancing, music and cards were the pastimes of the evening and at a late hour a delicious repast was served. The table was attractively decorated with appointments, significant of the Christmas season. A small Christmas tree adorned the center while lighted red candles in crystal holders cast a pretty glow.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Thoburn Bowdle, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tremaine, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hutter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Newman, Mr. and Mrs. David W. Higby, Messrs. Lucille and Loren Burkhardt, Mary Dille, Helen Hoerner, Rosemary Christen, Bernella Ross, Myrtle May, Messrs. Harold Cook, Homer Tremaine, W. T. Agutter, Jr., Arthur Shepherd, Foster Crossley and Mrs. Joseph Garner, of Toledo.

Little Miss Ruth Rhoda, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto J. Rhoda, of S. Cole-st., entertained a group of little playmates Thursday afternoon with a Yuletide party. Interesting readings were given by Master William Friedrich, Jr., Alice Hoss, of Ft. Wayne, and the little hostess. Music and games were also enjoyed and a dainty luncheon was served by Mrs. Rhoda.

Miss Volma Dettler, of E. Pearl-st., is the week-end guest of friends in Bowling Green.

LETTERS TO LOVERS

BY WINON WILCOX

Man, the maker of laws and conventions, put upon women in the beginning the responsibility of maintaining the integrity of the home. When she failed he "threw her out" until now those unfit to be trusted form a class by themselves.

This is the reason why woman has come to consider virtue as the only asset required to make a perfect wife.

"I'm up against a pretty hard proposition," writes a husband, "I'm one of several million men out of a job. I handed a pretty thick pay envelope to my wife every two weeks for six years. She spent the contents to suit herself."

"I let her. Now I see I was weak, but it's too late. We haven't saved a cent to meet a period of unemployment, and we might have saved hundreds of dollars, had I had the sense to insist on it."

"She's a good little wife, as loyal as ever lived. But now we can't pay for help in the house, I have to wash the dishes in order to save her pretty hands. And the children wear muddy dresses because she says she can't and won't iron."

"My wife always has insisted on going with the right people and now that our income has stopped for a while, she rages because I can't keep up her car, nor buy her new dresses for dinners at the old club."

This complaint continues along familiar lines and suggests some old ideas which, like much ancient wisdom, is usually ignored by the persons who most need it.

Probably woman's limitation in any occupation always has been her failure to comprehend the possibilities of her work.

This is conspicuously true of matrimony. In spite of the fact that it is her original and universal vocation. How often does the bride grasp the full significance of the wedding contract?

Usually, she is educated to see no farther than her wedding day, upon which occasion she assumes the coveted dependence of the vine upon the oak.

She is the paying teller in the business of matrimony, she is the acknowledged spender and too often she defaults, but her partner doesn't find out until sickness comes or employment fails and there's nothing in reserve to cover the rainy day.

Of course there are thousands of thrifty wives who have proved the mainstay of their homes in times of economic depression. This letter refers only to the other class which is defined in the letter above.

Undoubtedly, the integrity of the home as woman understands it, is safe in the keeping of many women who ought not to be trusted with anything else.

NOISY WELCOME FOR NEW YEAR

New Year revelers are getting their "artillery" in readiness for midnight activities, Saturday.

A new-born year is always noisily welcomed by Lima. Down-town streets witness large crowds and horns are much in evidence.

However, there will be a limit to which revelers may go in giving vent to joy on the occasion of the birth of the year 1922.

Police will see to that. So long as revelry is of a harmless character there will be no interference. Numerous parties have been arranged, to speed the old and welcome the new year.

SUSIE SMART SAYS

Dear Miss Smart:

I AM a young girl 18 years of age. I have been going with a young man a little older than myself for some time. He is a very nice, kind, and all of him, but for some reason the girls and boys do not seem to care so much for him. Consequently he is never invited to any of the parties. He doesn't seem to mind it but it hurts me. They know I go with him and I feel that it is their place to invite him. One of the girls is giving a party soon, but I am very certain she does not intend to invite my friend. This makes me very angry. Don't you think it would be alright if I would ask her to invite him?

YOURS IN DISTRESS

NO, it would not be exactly proper for you to ask the girl to invite your friend. A hostess has the privilege of inviting whom she chooses. Understand the situation and realize how you feel. It is only natural that you should want your friend to act as your escort. However, it would not be the right thing for you to suggest that the girl invite this young man. She doubtless would resent it.

The thing for you to do is to have a party of your own some day, giving your friends a chance to see that you respect this young man and that you want them to extend to him the courtesy which you think he deserves. It is very likely the reason your friends do not care for him is because they do not know him well. Take especial pains to give him a chance to become acquainted. Many of the finest young people are reserved until they are very well acquainted.

Dear Miss Smart: I am a young woman in business. As my home is not here, I rent a room in a private house. As my landlady usually has quite a few guests, I have been in the habit of receiving my men callers in my own room. I did not want to ask for the living room, as it is usually filled with other company. I see no harm in receiving my callers in my own room, since it is the only place I have. However, my landlady seems to object and says that, if I will just let her know in time she will arrange to let me use the living room. Don't you think she is unreasonable?

A READER. No, your landlady is right. It is not wise for you to receive your men callers in this room, as it is very probable that it will cause unfavorable talk from neighbors, who perhaps do not understand the situation and do not look at it from your point of view. Accept the hospitality of your landlady and thank her for her kindness. She realizes that you are a young woman and wishes to protect your name, that is all.

Twelve members of the Hawthorne club were in attendance at the meeting with Mrs. J. K. Fetter, of S. Collett-st., Friday, Mrs. H. A. Fisher gave a reading entitled, "Bethlehem." Members decided to devote a portion of their time at future meetings to the making of comforts for the poor. Mrs. J. A. Helpman was the only guest.

Next meeting will be held in two weeks with Mrs. Howard Fisher.

MOTHER!

Your Child's Bowels Need "California Fig Syrup"

Hurry Mother! A teaspoonful of "California Fig Syrup" now will thoroughly clean the little bowels and in a few hours you have a well, playful child again. Even a cross, feverish, constipated child loves it's "fruity" taste, and mothers can rest easy because it never fails to work all the sour bile and poisons right out of the stomach and bowels without griping or upsetting the child. Tell your druggist you want only the genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother, you must say "California." Refuse any imitation.

MOLLY O—begins week's run at Sigma Sunday

MISTER 44

BY E. J. RATH

It was not until an hour passed and the sunset had come that he began to be alarmed. He had visions of mishap to a frail canoe. He pictured Sadie in the grip of some unhappy and perilous circumstance.

When he could stand the suspense no longer he leaped into his canoe and made a reconnaissance. Whether to go, however, he could not tell, so his search consisted merely of a trip around the island. Landing again, he fell to pacing the narrow limits of the camp like a creature in a cage. Stoddard was still enchained by little worry when a glance toward the lake showed him the Indian's canoe approaching the island. There was nobody in the canoe save John, smoking unconcernedly and wielding his paddle lazily. Stoddard called across the stretch of water and waved his arms wildly. The Indian put down his pipe and quickened his pace.

"Where is she?" cried Stoddard, as the canoe neared the island.

"Gone," answered John unemotionally.

"Gone where? What do you mean?"

"You got letter? In tent."

Stoddard dashed up the bank and dived into the tent. Lying on the blankets was a folded paper, weighted with a little stone. He seized it and carried it outside.

Sadie had written:

Dear Friend—I'm going away Jack—it's the best way. I guess a girl has got to work in the city. But I am sorry I came up here Jack. I hope it's all right for me to call you that, it's only for now anyhow. You been awful good to me and I can't ever thank you for all the things you done. I've had a little bit of outdoors anyhow and they've been more a mistake coming at all. I did a lot of thinking while you was gone with your mother. Mr. Livingston maybe will tell you some time, for he is right even if I don't like him.

So good-by Jack. I'm going to believe you'll think of me once in a while because that will help some. I'm sorry I can't write you a better letter but—

Did you know I been praying for you every night I always will Jack. God bless you SADIE.

"Where did she go?" Stoddard shouted.

"Took train," said John placidly.

"Lower Station?"

"You took her there?"

The Indian nodded. Stoddard swore aloud.

"Where is she going to?"

John shrugged his shoulders to indicate that he had no idea.

"Did she have a ticket?"

"She would pay on train, she said."

"You went by the portage?"

"Yes."

"And you're positive she didn't say where she was going?"

"She said she go home. She didn't talk much."

He turned upon the Indian savagely.

"How dare you take her away from this island?"

"You tell me to take lady's orders. You don't tell me to keep her here. You say take good care of her," added John in self-defense.

"I do. She catch train plenty time."

Stoddard remembered a phrase in the letter.

"She says something about Mr. Livingston here," he said. "Did she talk with him today?"

"This morning, down that way," answered John, pointing toward the other end of the island.

"After I had come back to camp?"

"Yes."

Larry had something to do with this—Larry, the mediator. Stoddard's fingers yearned for a grip on Larry's throat—for a chance to shake the truth from him.

"What a stupid coward I was!"

PATTERN FOR TODAY

A PRACTICAL OUTFIT FOR THE "LITTLE ONE"

Pattern 3505 is here illustrated. It is cut in 4 sizes: 6 months to 1 year, 2, 3, and 4 years. A 1 year size will require 1 3/4 yard for the dress, 1 3/8 yard for the petticoat and 5/8 yard for drawers of 36 inch material.

Muslin, cambric, mainsook and lawn are good for all of the designs here portrayed. The dress may also be of silk, henrietta, albatross, pique, gingham or chambray, and the drawers of domed flannel.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c in silver or stamps.

he muttered. "To let him scare me away!"

John, innocent instrument of Stoddard's despair, suddenly appeared to remember something.

"I forgot," he said, and began rambling in a pocket.

Presently he withdrew from it a crumpled roll of paper.

"She say to give you this," he explained.

Stoddard unfolded the paper and found, lying in the palm of his hand, a strand of golden-bronze hair. Gently he passed the slithering skin thru his fingers, marveling at its softness and smoothness of it. Then he put it into the pocket of his shirt—the same pocket as that into which Sadie had placed a letter.

"You're sure this is all, John?" he asked.

"You haven't forgotten anything more?"

"No."

Twilight had deepened into early evening darkness when Stoddard wandered a little distance along the shore and sat heavily upon a bowlder.

He loved her. He would always love her. That he told himself calmly.

He loved her; therefore it followed that he wanted her. Wanting her, he must seek. Where?

The Indian told him she talked of going home. Her letter contained the pathetic conclusion that the place for a girl to work was in the city. Buffalo, then. The night mail, southbound, would reach the Lower Station at eleven-fifty. It went only to North Bay, but it would set him on his journey. Stoddard went briskly up to camp, where he found John with supper ready. He ate readily.

"I take the night train, John," he said when the meal was over. "I don't know when I'll be back. You can pack up my stuff and take it to Deepwater Station. I'll send word what to do with it later. My city clothes are there, too. I'll send you some money later. I need what I have with me. I'll catch the train at the Lower Station," added Stoddard.

"I'll start now."

John evinced no desire to make another trip to the Lower Station. He said he would get the canoe tomorrow.

A minute later Stoddard was crossing the Northeast Arm, headed for the entrance to the portage that crossed the neck of the peninsula. He did not hesitate to try conclusions with it again, even tho it had used him hardly a few nights before.

The crossing of the portage exacted a toll of heavy labor, but he remembered the trees that had tripped him, the rocks that lay in wait for a mis-step, and he profited thereby. When he dropped his canoe into the waters of Island Bay he sighed comfortably and triumphantly.

"It was almost too tame this time," he said.

As he slid the canoe thru a narrow passage between two of the islands a sound of voices reached his ears. He rested his paddle and listened. Men were talking off to the right.

"I don't see that it's any use to hang around here," growled one voice. "We've tried it two nights now and nothing doing."

"Well, it was your tip," came the answer.

"Jim said he found tracks over here. That's what brought us."

"Anything might have made 'em," retorted the second voice in disgust.

Stoddard dipped his paddle again. Somebody was getting ready to violate the game laws of the Deepwater.

The canoe shot out into a broader sheet of water, where the moonlight played again.

"Listen!" One of the voices spoke abruptly.

"What is it?"

"Somebody in a canoe. I heard the paddle."

"Has he got one?"

"God knows. I suppose so."

Stoddard halted again for a moment; then he remembered the south-bound train and resumed his course.

As he did so he heard the noise of running feet on a rocky shore, then a splashing, followed by a sound of hasty paddling behind him. He looked back and made out the dim bulk of a moving canoe headed directly in his wake. He had taken less than a dozen strokes when a voice hailed from the darkness.

"Halt!"

Stoddard hesitated. "What's the trouble?" he called.

"We want a look at you!" said the voice sharply.

"Can't wait. I'm in a hurry," he answered, laying to his paddle once more.

"Halt!" The command was more peremptory.

"Cut out the melodrama," advised Stoddard over his shoulder.

"We'll fire!"

Stoddard laughed and kept steadily on his way.

A rifle cracked and somewhere off to his left a bullet cut the surface of Island Bay. Stoddard stopped laughing. This was carrying a joke too far.

"I warn you to stop shooting," he called.

The answer was a second shot.

Stoddard's canoe was flying now. Then he heard the voices again.

"Stop shooting and get to work!"

Stoddard exclaimed one "We'll catch him. There's no reward for dead men."

A great light dawned upon Stoddard. They were hunting the "lunatic."

Five minutes later he was clear of the islands, with a mile of open water ahead, at the end of which lay the rotting wharf of the Lower Station. No sound came from either craft now, save those of heavy breathing and rapidly wielded paddles. Half a mile farther found the two craft separated by not more than a hundred feet. Stoddard was breathing heavily, but his arms and body worked with machine-like precision and power. He even had a final spurt stored within him, if he needed it.

He heard the faint whistle of a train. "Good Lord!" he thought,

"I'd have missed it sure if I hadn't had somebody to chase me!"

As his canoe ran alongside the rotten platform he sprang out, still clinging to his paddle. Then he faced swiftly about. The pursuing craft touched the landing at an instant

later. Two men leaped from it, one of whom, as Stoddard could see in the half-moonlight, carried a rifle in his hands. He brought it quickly to his shoulder, and aimed it at Stod-dard's breast.

Stoddard raised his hands above his head in obedience to orders, the paddle grasped crosswise in them.

A series of sharp blasts from the locomotive whistle shrieked thru the trees.

Stoddard's arms were flung forward swiftly, and the paddle described a wide arc, its shaft struck squarely across the face of the man with the gun. He uttered a cry of pain and staggered backward. Instantly Stoddard whirled and launched his two-hundred-pound bulk behind a swinging fist. The blow landed the second man in the shallow water of the cove.

Stoddard led up the path toward the station. No signal had been set; there was no time to set one.

The locomotive rolled past him.

The brakes were grinding for the curve below, but the train was still moving at a twenty-five mile gait.

The last car reached him. Simultaneously he broke into a run beside it, his eyes glancing backward.

A hand-rail slid past him. The fingers of his left hand closed upon it swiftly, and he sprang. His foot slipped and he fell to his knees, his body swaying outward.

GEORGE COOK, AUSTRALIAN HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION, TO GIVE CARPENTIER A STIFF FIGHT IN JANUARY

BY JACK McAULIFFE
(Retired Undeclared Lightweight Champion)

LONDON—George Cook, heavyweight champion of Australia, is the fortunate one to get the first crack at Georges Carpentier since Dempsey worked on him.

I say fortunate, because he gets a big chance for fame and fortune.

Already, the British are figuring how soon they can get Dempsey over to show himself with the Australian, if he knocks out Georges.

When I sailed for England, New York was asking: "Who is this Cook?" Lack of information about him caused many of the skeptics to wag their heads and pass him off as a set-up.

I haven't seen Cook work, but I believe he is anything but an easy mark for any of the heavies outside of the big champion.

He is 23 years old, weighs 187 pounds and stands five feet, ten and one-half inches. With the exception of reach, where he has only 75 inches, against Dempsey's 78 and Carpentier's 77, he is within an inch of the champion all the way around.

Cook is what they call in Australia "a boy from the bush." He was born at a place called Dubbo, New South Wales and earned his first money driving the Dubbo mail coach.

He has been boxing professionally for three years, during which he engaged in 16 contests, eight of which were with three opponents, three with Jimmy Clabby, three with Albert Lloyd and two with Fritz Holland.

That record isn't impressive, but I wouldn't pass up any man schooled and trained by Dave Smith, the man who made Les Darcy.

Smith has had Cook since he first put on the gloves.

In addition to his ring talent, he is an excellent swimmer, having been decorated three times for saving lives in the water around his home haunts. He is also a proficient woodsman, doing a lot of his training work with the axe.

The youngster is ambitious without being boastful. He does not talk of dropping Dempsey with one punch like Carpentier did all last June in Manhasset. He has no prima donna ways and has no barbed wire around his headquarters.

In referring to his coming bout with the Frenchman, he told me the other day: "I have the advantage as regards weight strength, endurance and age. In speed there is nothing between us. In height there is only a half inch in his favor. It is the chance of my lifetime. I intend to win."

Urbana Plays Central Five Here Tonight

When Central High School basketball team lines up on the gymnasium floor Friday night to play the Urbana team, it will be a much more experienced quintet. Two games at Central this week have given the wearers of the red and green a heavy workout before the battle Friday night.

Thursday the Centralites played a team picked from their alumni. The high school lads won by a score of 23 to 16. Play was fast and furious with the alumni unable to get away from the rapid work of the high school boys.

SHOW IMPROVEMENT
The game showed much improvement on the part of the Centralites over any basketball skill they have demonstrated thus far this year. Devoe, Mitchell, Hunter, Wetherill, and Fiske, all got a chance on the floor and will probably compose the first squad for the remainder of the season.

Taylor, Lutz, Dille, Douglass and Laughlin worked for the Alumni quintet. Lack of teamwork and practice was evident. Individuals worked well however.

'SMATTER, SIS?

ST. LOUIS, Mo. — George Sisler, star first-baseman for the St. Louis Americans, does not aspire to be a major league manager and is satisfied in the role of player, according to his own assertion today.

Sisler was offered the management of the Browns last year, but declined on the ground that he did not have the time or inclination to be a manager. He is spending the holidays at his home here.

Urban Shocker, right hand pitcher for the Browns, has suffered a fractured left wrist by moving an article of furniture at his home here, it became known today.

LIMA FEATHER READY FOR RED'S ATTACK

Jake Gross meets one of the best featherweights in Ohio tonight at Memorial Hall, when he will endeavor to stage a comeback following his retirement from pugilistic activities two years ago.

But it is not the same Jake. He uses a new style of boxing and undoubtedly will give "Red" McDonald, his opponent, a fierce battle.

The Toledo sorer top arrived in Lima Wednesday and is confident that he will beat Gross. He has made several wild statements and from the looks of things it is his ambition to ruin Jake tonight.

WISE TO McDONALD
Gross is wise to McDonald and knows that the Toledoian will try to land a kayo as quickly as possible. The Lima featherweight is going in the ring full of confidence and only a miracle can keep him from staying the limit.

Lima fight fans are anxious to see Jake in action again. At Wapakoneta a few weeks ago he put up a terrific fight against Young El-Hinwood of Fort Wayne, and less than three weeks ago he mauled Oscar Koff, a highly touted feather who hales from Fred Basche's stables in Cincinnati.

HAD SEVERE COLD
During the early part of this week Gross contracted a severe cold and for a time it appeared as if the matchmakers would have to find a substitute for him. Earl Smith, his manager, reports that the cold has cleared up and that his pug will enter the fray in the best of condition. The only drawback is that the Lima boy has lost some valuable training sessions.

McDonald has been finishing his training in the St. Louis gymnasium and looks good. He is a fearless pug, and carries a wallop in the right that would make a stick of dynamite look like a sneeze.

WHAT'S THE DOPE
Don Bowsher must be keeping himself behind locked doors. Nothing has been seen or heard of him since Young Staley and Hope Mullen arrived from Sidney to train with him. He has some gym in the North End lined up and must be putting in some hard training.

At his uncle's shoe shop where Bowsher is employed he was not on duty Wednesday nor Thursday and nothing had been seen of him Friday. But W. K. Sterling, his manager, says Bowsher is coming along fine and will be on the job when his bout comes up Friday night.

"And he's got to give Jack O'Dell the stiffest fight of his young life," "Doc" Sterling said. Both are middleweights and are to weigh in at 160 pounds.

Sailor Grant, a South Side boy will be a hard nut for Lonnie Lynn, of Dayton, to crack. They will go six rounds, the same as Tommy Burns, Lima, and Eddie O'Day, of Covington, Ky.

Cyclone Phalen will fight Kid Brown, and Young Kemple will mix it with Young Harris in two four round preliminaries. All are Lima boys.

The fight will start promptly at eight o'clock.

EAST WILL CONDUCT FIRST DOG RACE

One of the first dog races ever held in the east will be conducted by the Nansen Ski club of Berlin, N. H., on February 2, 3 and 4.

The distance covered will be only 120 miles, the idea being to prevent the contest from being so severe as to work any hardship on the dogs.

Jacques Suzanne, a well known artist and dog fancier of the North Woods, will pilot the American entry. There will be several Canadian entries.

The race will be run for a silver cup and three cash prizes of $300, $200 and $100 for first, second and third place respectively.

The first day of the race will cover 42 miles to the Balsams hotel, Dixville Notch, N. H. The second day will cover 48 miles from Balsams to Lancaster and the third day 30 miles, from Lancaster to Berlin.

EXPORT BALANCE TO BE LOST?

Forbes Says This Is Indicated by Trend of Trade.

U. S. EXPORT NOW DWINDLING

Writer Admits, However, He Is In Minority Opinion.

(BY B. C. FORBES)
NEW YORK (Special)—Is the time approaching when American exports will exceed her imports, when, in other words, we will buy more than we sell?

The predominating opinion is that this will not happen either in the near future or in the longer future, but that, as the new countries of Europe gain international purchasing power, their demands for American commodities and merchandise will so greatly increase as to give us a large export balance.

What might be called the minority opinion is that in the near future there will be months when our exports will outweigh our imports. I confess to leaning towards this view.

Have you noticed how Britain and France have been curtailing their unfavorable trade balance? It is authoritatively estimated that, when allowance is made for British so-called invisible exports, she is already more than balancing her monthly international account. These invisible items include the large sums received by British shipping companies from foreign countries for freight and passenger services rendered; the many millions of dollars which annually pour into British fire, marine and other insurance companies from all parts of the world; the very large aggregate sums earned by British banks as foreign agents, for conducting international banking operations; interest and dividends on the foreign bonds and stocks still held by British interests; etc.

France, too, has made remarkable progress in balancing her foreign trade. In certain months there has actually been a balance of exports over imports.

Then look how America's monthly export balances have been shrinking. For the first eleven months of last year our excess of exports was almost $2,500,000,000. This year the corresponding figure is under $1,200,000,000.

Why is it regarded by some as probable that this tendency towards the wiping out of our export balance will continue?

The most important, the broadest reasons are:

First—We are now a creditor nation on a tremendously large scale.

Second—Almost every country on the face of the earth is raising large loans here, putting them still further in our debt and involving the remittance of larger and still larger amounts to this country to meet interest obligations.

Third—Our foreign debtors, as they get on their feet, will intensify their efforts to ship their products to us in order not merely to meet interest charges but to reduce their indebtedness to us, particularly in the case of the international governmental debt.

Fourth—As time becomes more prosperous here, spending will become freer, particularly for high-grade imported goods and all classes of luxuries, as there are in this country a great many people who go in heavily for such things when money is plentiful with them.

Fifth—The people in most foreign countries will have to bear such heavy tax loads that they will live frugally, work industriously and contrive to get along somehow with a minimum of imported things, apart from absolutely necessary raw materials.

Sixth—What ever arrangement is made for handling the $11,000,000,000 owed us by foreign nations, the net effect will be to stimulate other countries to increase their shipments of their products to us. Incidentally, the British budget for the coming year allows for the payment of fifty million pounds sterling in interest to the American government.

Please understand that all this is presented merely as theory and with no guarantee that the events will turn out as here outlined. However, the subject is worthy of careful thought of every banker and business man in the country, and none of us will be entirely unaffected by what happens.

MUTT AND JEFF—THIS WAS A NICE, CLEAN GENTLEMEN'S GAME—NIT!

BRINGING UP FATHER—

SHORT SHAVINGS

Frank Pringle tucked his feet far under his chair when he took off his shoes in a shoe repair shop yesterday.

"I'm taking no chances," he said. "The last time I left my foot out here a woman stepped on it."

E. R. Hunt, croaker, was much an-moyed on a street car because the conductor called the stops so loudly. Hunt couldn't read his paper. "He was so annoyed," reports a friend, "that he forgot to get off at his own stop and rode on past."

Itay Horn, druggist, says he was interested to learn from a gipsy fortune teller who read his palm that he would take a long journey—to Europe.

"But I'm not counting on the trip," he says. "For she didn't tell me where to get the money for it." Jim Jolley reached his store with a bump where the famous little girl had the famous little curl. He had presented a pop-gun to a fair-haired child for Christmas, and the fair-haired child popped Jolley.
